

The VISITOR

January 2026

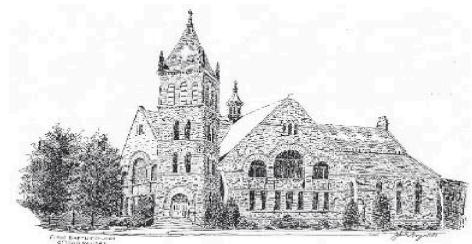

Our Christmas celebrations are coming to a close. The trees, tinsel, and sweets are disappearing and some of us are left in a daze. How did Christmas come and go so quickly? Quicker each year it seems. The story of our faith in its familiarity and newness asks us to consider if hearing it again has changed us or not. The Christ child's miracle birth knocking on our hearts and asking to find residence there. Some of us will forbid the playing of Christmas music until July while others will let it play a little longer because of postponed celebrations. Either way, the world seems to pause even as the new year begins. A couple years ago, a friend shared this poem by the brilliant theologian, Howard Thurman, with me. I am always tempted to share it every January and am grateful I have not had the pleasure of sharing it with you all yet.

The Work of Christmas by Howard Thurman
When the song of the angels is stilled,
When the star in the sky is gone,
When the kings and princes are home,
When the shepherds are back with their flock,
The work of Christmas begins:

To find the lost,
To heal the broken,
To feed the hungry,
To release the prisoner,
To rebuild the nations,
To bring peace among brothers,
To make music in the heart.

Thurman challenges us to continue the work we just started with the church calendar. To embrace the scripture readings and songs sung as we consider what God is calling us to do. As I started with you all in April, Jesus's hometown sermon is a helpful reminder of what we are called to do as Christ followers (Luke 4:16-19). May the poem and passage be an anchor for us. This is the year of the Lord's favor for us to continue the work of Christmas. Let us take on January and 2026 by offering space, healing, food, advocacy, peace, and music to God as worship and to each other as an act of love. Beloved, the work of Christmas has begun, and we have lots to do. Let us work together for God's glory and the good of our neighbor until there is peace on earth.

Happy New Year,
Pastor Joy

We have established a checking account at Kansas State Bank to receive any donations people want to make to help purchase fresh apples each week during the school year. Checks can be made out to "Apples for Kids" and taken directly to the bank to deposit the money. If you are unable to take the check, call Russ Testorff at (785)248-6534 and he will come by to pick up your donation. Thanks for helping us provide fresh fruit to these kids.

ABWM FBC OTTAWA Book of the Month Mark

"Listen carefully to what I am saying ---and be wary of shrewd advice that tells you how to get ahead of the world on your own. Giving, not getting, is the way. Generosity begets generosity. Stinginess impoverishes."

Mark 4: 24-25 MSG

*Towards the end of the second century a man called Papias who liked to collect and share information about the early days of the church tells us Mark simply records Peter's preaching material.

* Papias says:

"Mark, who was Peter's interpreter, wrote accurately, though not in order, all that he recollected of what Christ had said or done." For he was not a hearer of the Lord or a follower of his. He followed Peter Peter adapted his instructions to practical needs, without any attempt to give the Lord's words systematically. So that Mark was not wrong in writing down some things in this way from memory, for his one concern was neither to omit nor to falsify anything that he had heard."

* the GOSPEL of MARK

pg 4 William Barkley revised edition 1979

Matthew, Mark & Luke record 3 parables with precise accuracy, written at different times and different locations. The English word "parable" is the transliteration of the Greek word parabole. Parable, a short story, based on familiar life experiences, relatable to equal & opposite meanings. Jesus' taught in parables that his hearers could relate to. see Psalms 78:1-2.

Study Mark, get to know Jesus better.
